

Contents

Introduction	xv
------------------------	----

Chapter 1 ProShow Fundamentals—a World of Sight, Sound, and Motion 1

The ProShow Editing Workspace and Basic ProShow Skills	3
Building Our First Show and Creating Slides Using Drag and Drop	5
More Slides, a Transition, and a Soundtrack	6
Arranging Slides, Timing, and Previewing a Show	9
Previewing a Show	11
What’s “In” a Slide?	13
The Slide Options Window	13
Getting Fancy with Slide Styles	15
A Moving Backdrop	16
A Special Effects Primer	17
Captions with a Bit of Style	21
Up Next	22

Chapter 2 Beyond the Basics—It’s All About Time 25

Slide and Transition Timing	26
Not Just for Slides—Timing Layers in Producer	29
A Closer Look	30
A Brief Moment—Layer 2 and the Flash Effect	34
Layer 1’s Late Entry	35
Using the Multi-Layer Keyframe Editor	36
A Few Words about Editing in the Precision Preview Window	38
A Simplified Show	41

Customizing the ProShow User Interface	42
Setting ProShow's Operating Preferences	44
Appearance	45
Colors for Program	45
External Editors	46
Keyboard and Remotes	47
Internet Preferences	47
Miscellaneous Preferences	48
Organization: ProShow's Trilogy of Slides, Shows, and Projects.	49
Saving, Finding, and Collecting Show Files	50
Why Files "Go Missing"	51
Locating Missing Show Files	51
Collecting Show Files	53
Up Next	54

Chapter 3

Frames, Motion, and the Layered Look 55

The Slide as a Stage	55
Framing Images: A Working Demonstration	56
The First Slide—a Simple Invitation	58
A Closer Look at the Layers List and the Preview Pane	59
Tailoring the Preview Display for Working with Layers	62
Adjusting Layers within the Frame.	64
Interactively Manipulating Layers Using the Mouse.	64
Motion Basics—Getting from Point A to Point B in Four Dimensions	66
The X and Y of Zooming.	67
A Few Moments with the Keyframe Timeline.	69
Adding and Placing Multiple Layers Efficiently	70
Duplicating the Design.	71
Understanding X and Y Coordinate Positioning	73
Adding and Ordering the Other Image Layers	74
Adjusting Size and Rotation.	75
Getting Things Moving	79
Beginnings and Ends: Motion Effects Demystified	81
Setting Layers into Motion.	83
Working with Rotation in Motion	85
A Quick Recap.	87
Smooth Moves: ProShow's Acceleration Styles.	89

Matchmaking, and Moving Outside the Box 91
 Putting It All Together 93
 Two Slides, Two Backgrounds, Eight Layers, and a
 Disappearing Act 94
 Matching Motion Speed between Layers 94
 Who Says We Have to Start at the Beginning—or the Middle?. 97
 Up Next 100

Chapter 4
Adding and Editing Soundtracks 101

Working with Audio Files 102
 Adding, Removing, Positioning, and Previewing Audio Files . . 102
 Using Simple Audio Synchronizing Tools 104
 A Closer Look at Soundtracks 105
 Going Interactive: Advanced Sound Controls. 106
 Mastering the Audio Trimmer 107
 Scaling and Positioning the Waveform 109
 Setting the Start and End Points 109
 Adjusting Fade In and Fade Out Intervals 110
 Editing Soundtracks Using the Timeline 111
 Adjusting Offsets, Fades, and Volume Using the Timeline
 Tools 112
 Creating a Crossfade Effect with the Timeline 115
 Recording Slide Timings—Precise Transition and Soundtrack Synchs 117
 Menu-Based Volume, Fade, and Offset Controls 120
 Adding Audio Tracks from a CD 120
 Adding Soundtracks and Voiceovers to Individual Slides 121
 Up Next 124

Chapter 5
Caption Fundamentals: More Than Just a Way with Words 125

Basic Caption Design Considerations. 126
 A Special Type of Layer, with Its Own Special Effects 129
 Blending Text and Motion in the Design 130
 ProShow’s Common Caption Toolkit and a Bit of Typography . . . 133
 Selecting and Sizing Fonts 133
 All Fonts Are Not Created Equal 135

Adding Another Slide and Caption 138
Making Captions Move Using Text Effects 140
Alignment and Anchor Points 143
“Automatic” Captions: the Power of Macros 145
 Inserting Special Characters into a Slide with Macros 146
Show Captions, Globalization, and the Art of Invisibility 149
 Adding a Global Caption 149
 All Captions Are Not Created Equal 150
A Closer Look 153
Up Next 156

Chapter 6
Getting Fancy: Advanced Caption Tools and Keyframing Basics 157

Keyframes Defined, Captions Redefined 158
 ProShow Producer’s Caption Window 162
Keyframing, Caption Motion Effects, and the Magic of Timing. . . 168
 Working with the Keyframe Timeline. 170
 Adjusting Keyframes and Text Effects 171
 Working with Multiple Keyframes 173
 Adding and Adjusting Keyframes 175
Keyframes Move More Than Words 176
 Adding New Slides 177
 Setting Adjustment Effects 177
Adding and Adjusting the Captions 178
Using the Multi-Layer Keyframe Editor 180
Up Next 183

Chapter 7
Advanced Motion Effects Using
Keyframes 185

A Traffic Control Lesson 186
 The Smoothing Effect. 189
Getting Things in Proper Order 190
Simple Keyframe Effects: There and Back Again 193
 Adjusting Keyframe Timing and Position 193
 Zooming In for a Closer Look 195
 Locking and Manually Setting Keyframes 196

Working with Precision Preview 197
 Experimenting with Rotation and Precision Preview 198
 Motion Keyframing with Multiple Layers 199
 Managing the Preview Area 200
 Multilayer Motion Effects Workflow 202
 Placing and Adjusting the Images 203
 Setting the First Layer’s Keyframes 206
 Adjusting the Layer 1 Transitions 207
 Adding the Remaining Keyframes 208
 Creating Layer 2 Keyframes 208
 Setting the First Three Keyframes 211
 Swapping Positions: Keyframes 3, 4, and 5 212
 Adding a Little Spin: Adjusting Keyframes 5, 6, and 7 213
 Designing Complex Motion Effects: The Real Deal 216
 A Quick Shuffle, and Laying Down the Cards 217
 Examining the Table Background 218
 The Staggered Entry Transformed into a Second Collage 219
 Up Next 222

Chapter 8
Adjustment Effects and Advanced Editing 223

Adjustment Effects Controls 223
 Working with the Colorize Controls 226
 The Oz Effect: Black and White to Color 226
 Combining Adjustment Effects with Layer and Motion
 Techniques 232
 Opacity: It’s Not Just an Adjustment Control 234
 Smooth Moves: Creating a Composition with Opacity and Transitions 237
 Creating an Overlay with Opacity 241
 Hue Adjustments: Playing with Color on the Move 243
 Setting Up the Layers 243
 Motion and Adjustment Effects: An Intricate Dance, with
 Some Sleight of Hand 246
 A Closer Look at Layer 1 247
 Cloning the Effects and Adjusting the Keyframe Timeline 249
 Variations on a Theme 251
 A Horse of a Different Color 253
 Up Next 256

Chapter 9

Advanced Layer Techniques: Masks, Vignettes, and Chroma Key 257

The Alpha Channel and a Spotlight on Masking	260
Creating a Simple Transparency Mask	260
Combining Transparent Masks with Vignettes	264
Isolating Portions of the Frame with Transparent Masks	267
Intensity Masking: White Reveals while Black Conceals	270
Slide 1: a Simple Stencil	270
The New Slide 1: a Role Reversal	274
Combining Adjustment Effects with Intensity Masking	276
Alpha Channel Masks and a Selective Bit of Color	277
Working with Multiple Masks	279
Life on the Border: Vignetting	281
It's Not a Mask, It's a Vignette	283
A Final Spotlight on Vignettes and Masking	286
Chroma Key: More Than Just a Green Screen	288
Setting the Key Color Using an Existing Color	290
Adjusting the Effect	291
Employing a Traditional Green-Screen Chroma Key	292
Fade to Black Reconsidered	294
Fast-Moving Clouds: Using Video Clips with Chroma Key	296
Working with Video Clips in ProShow	296
Setting Up Slide 1's Chroma Key Transparency	298
Slide 2: The Same Clouds, but Not the Same Sky	300
Up Next	301

Chapter 10

Templates and Live Shows 303

Working with Templates	304
Creating and Saving Templates	305
Adding Content to Template Layers	308
Template Planning and Workflow	309
Importing and Exporting Templates	310
Modifying and Using Templates	310

Producing Live Shows 311
 Setting Up a Basic Live Show 311
 Setting Playback Options 314
 Creating an Executable Live Show 315
 Creating Advanced Live Shows with Templates 315
 Setting Fixed Slides and Content 316
 Adjusting for Vertical and Horizontal Composition 317
 Setting the Live Show Options and Placing the Content 319
 The Camera Connection 320
 Up Next 322

Chapter 11
Creating Menus and Branding Shows 323

Designing Professional Menus and Adding Interactivity 324
 The Menu Window 325
 Touring the Tools 326
 Crafting a Multiple-Show Menu 327
 Setting Show Titles and Thumbnails 327
 Creating a Custom Menu 330
 The Custom Menu—General Tab Options 331
 The Custom Menu—Thumbnails Tab 333
 Personalizing Shows with Branding 341
 Announcing Your Work with an Intro Show 341
 Using the Branding Tab Options 342
 Setting a Disc Label and Adding Additional Content 345
 Adding a Watermark to the Slides 346
 Up Next 347

Chapter 12
Getting the Story Out 349

Show Output Basics 350
 Choosing an Output Format and Understanding Common
 Settings Options 350
 Output Formats and Files Demystified 355
 Supported Output File Formats and Media Types 356
 Photodex Presenter Files and Plug-In 357
 Selecting Options for Different Output Formats 358
 DVD/VCD/CD Production 358

Autorun CD and Executable Files	362
Screen Savers	364
Portable Device Output	365
Creating Video Output Using an Existing Device Profile	366
Creating a Custom Device Profile.	366
ProShow File Types and File Management	367
Show Files	368
Menu Files	369
Output Files	369
Up Next	370

Chapter 13

ProShow and the Web 371

Internet Hosting Basics	371
ISPs and Bandwidth	371
Copyright Considerations	373
Sharing Shows with a Free Photodex Account	374
Hosting Presenter Files on Other Websites	377
Sending a Show via E-Mail	379
Flash FLV Shows and the Web	381
The YouTube Connection	382
Wrapping Up	383

Appendix A

Proshow Keyboard Shortcuts 385

Appendix B

Product Comparison Chart 387

Index 393